

Preparing College Applications

Presented by Bright Horizons College Coach®

September 15, 2026 | 12:00 p.m. ET | Live Webinar

In the confusing and competitive college admissions process, preparation and timing are key to your student's success. But juggling the many components of each application and making sure your student is maximizing all of them can be overwhelming. This webinar will go over the application process, strategy, and logistics to help your student submit their best application. You'll learn to:

- Understand the application components and how to tackle each one with less stress
- Write an impactful essay while avoiding common mistakes, pitfalls, and tricky topics
- Be proactive and strategic with deadlines

Suggested for: Rising 12th graders and their parents/guardians
